Expected Delivery Times

During the holiday season we would also like to advise that our expected delivery times remain in place.

Our bulk dairy and standard product ranges, delivery is aimed at 3 business days, not including the day of the order. For example, an order received 10.00am Monday, delivery can be expected on Thursday. There are exceptions to this (e.g., Gisborne, rural locations in the far South) but we work closely with transport providers to ensure delivery is as soon as possible.

Weekends and the upcoming public holidays are not business days. We encourage you to contact us to discuss any order requirements, to ensure deliveries arrive when needed during this period. Orders and queries can of course continue to be placed via email at any time sales@sealeswinslow.co.nz, these will be processed during the hours noted above.

From the SealesWinslow team, we hope you all have a very Merry Christmas with a fun filled and safe New Year. We look forward to working with you in 2021.
